Data Protection

Generally, photographs for school and family use, and those that appear in the press, are a source of pleasure and pride, which we believe can enhance self-esteem for children and young people, and their families, and so are to be welcomed. Children love to have their work instantly uploaded to our website or school media pages, and the response from parents, who can see what their child is doing in school on a regular basis, is fantastic.

However, we live in an age in which digital technology has vastly increased the use, and potential misuse, of photography, and there has been publicity surrounding concern about the safety of filming school events, and about the risk of a child being identified by a photograph in the local press, and as a result targeted for abuse.

In line with many schools and following advice from organisations such as local authorities and the police, we have taken the view that the risk of a child being identified by a stranger is so small that, providing reasonable steps are in place in terms of school security, planning to ensure an appropriate photograph, and to protect the full name and contact details of children, the practice of photography for school events by families and the media, should continue.

The Department for Education's broad rule of thumb for schools is that "if the pupil is named, avoid using the photograph. If the photograph is used, avoid naming the pupil". For our own school publications, we will follow this advice for photographs to be used for circulation beyond the school. The press, however, like to reflect the local community by naming children who appear, and may decline to photograph your child if this facility is denied to them.

We are mindful of the fact that for some families, there may be reasons why a child's identification is a matter of particular anxiety, and if you have special circumstances either now, or at any time in the future which would affect or change your consent on this issue, you need to let the school office know straight away.

If your child is old enough to express their own view, you may want to consult with them about the categories of consent, and we invite you to use this letter to explore their feelings about being photographed at school.

PLEASE BE AWARE THAT UNLESS THIS IS COMPLETED, WE WILL BE UNABLE TO USE PHOTOGRAPHS OR VIDEOS OF YOUR CHILD ON OUR WEBSITE, IN PUBLICATIONS OR LOCATIONS OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL.

Conditions of use

- This form is valid for the duration your child remains at The Forge Trust.
- It is your responsibility to let us know if you want to withdraw or change your agreement at any time.
- We, the school, will not use the personal details or full names (which means first name and surname) of any child in a photographic image on video, on our website, in our school prospectus or in any of our other printed publications.
- We will not include personal e-mail or postal addresses, or telephone or fax numbers on video, on our website, in our school prospectus or in other printed publications.
- We may include pictures of pupils and teachers that have been drawn by the pupils.
- We may include, if selected, work from pupils.
- We may use group or class photographs or footage with very general labels, such as "a science lesson" or "making Christmas decorations".

- We will only use images of pupils who are suitably dressed, to reduce the risk of such images being used inappropriately. This may include suitable PE kit e.g. T-shirts and jogging bottoms, or football kits, but will not include unsuitable PE kit e.g. leotards or swimwear.
- We will take class photos of your child, which will be available to purchase annually by parents of children in the class. If you do not wish your child to be on the photo, you must contact the school office directly before the school photos are taken.

As the child's parents/guardian, we agree that if we take photographs or video recordings of our child/ren which include other pupils, we will:

- use these for personal and family use only.
- only put photos of our children taken at school on social media networks if they do not contain recognisable images of other children.

The Act defined eight data protection principles to ensure that information was processed lawfully. ... It was superseded by the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) on 23 May 2018. The DPA 2018 supplements the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which came into effect on 25 May 2018.

We understand that where consent has not been obtained from parents for any other use, we would be in breach of the Data Protection Act 2018 unless this purpose is safeguarding children.

For transparency, we need to inform you that Parent's name, number, and email address will be sent through our Secure Management Information System called 'Wonde' to both 'Teacher2parents' and 'School Money'. This is to ensure you receive vital information about the school in a timely and efficient manner without the responsibility of delivering of these important messages being placed on pupils. You also will have full access to our booking system for Clubs/Trips/Events and meals. Giving the school a full record of your children's requirements.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.

We, The West Park Academy, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our legal basis for using this data

We only collect and use pupils' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation;
- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest;

Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way;
- We need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests).

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect about pupils is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you or your child, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional.

How we store this data

- Health and social welfare organisations- to meet our legal obligation to safeguard children;
- Police forces, courts, tribunals – to meet our legal obligation to safeguard children;

We are required to provide information about pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections such as the School Census and Early Years’ Census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the Department and provides evidence on school performance to inform research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards.

The Department for Education may share information from the NPD with other organisations which promote children’s education or wellbeing in England. Such organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data.

For more information, see the Department’s webpage on how it collects and shares research data.

Parents also have the right to make a subject access request with respect to any personal data the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you or your child, we will:

- Give you a description of it;
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for;
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child;

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request please contact Victoria Faulkner, Office Manager.
